"NIT!" SAYS MURRAY.

In Answer to a Question on Expansion.

We Should Not Retain the Philippines.

At a banquet given by the Young Men's Democratic Club, at Louisville, Wednesday night, C. L. D. Murray, in response to the query, "Should we retain the Philippines?", spoke as follows:

"There is no man in this audience, whose head will not lie in death before this question and its result are settled."

The subject involves the questions for us to solve—conquest, or, success to, stuporous people, imperialism or Democracy, liberty or subjugation.

In the first place, we must consider the continentality of the question, the justice of it, the equity of it. I know that it may now be considered too late to discuss the continentality of this question, or, perhaps, any other. The insularists have had their day. We must see to have lost its power and authority when it stands in the way of the accomplishment of its design and purposes of certain classes and conditions of men, but becomes powerless and impotent when applied to them by the hand of the insularists.

I will discuss the continentality of the retention of the Philippines Islands further than to remark that it is one of the inherent powers of this government to conquer and hold the territory, it is certainly a power not thought of by the nation, but it is a power of the nation. There is no man in this audience in opposition to the spirit of our insularists. We ask Europe to submit monarchies with repudiation and boast of our spirit of liberty and freedom, and we are asked to retain a people who are not fit for citizenship, and that wide ocean between us. Why should we retain the Philippines? The continentalists are in the right, and the insularists are in opposition to the spirit of our insularists.

We ask Europe to submit monarchies with repudiation and boast of our spirit of liberty and freedom, and we are asked to retain a people who are not fit for citizenship, and that wide ocean between us. Why should we retain the Philippines?

Mr. Cassidy is one of the leading Edin-tonians in the United States. He is quoted as an authority by the leading educational journals and what is thought of his ability, may be seen on another page of this paper.

He has long been aware of the grievous wrongs of the Philippines.

The relation that the Philippines will bear to us and to our government after they are conquered is a question that no one has yet answered, and those who advocate the doctrine of expansion have never, even in the most general way, attempted to form an opinion on this point. They will, I suppose, in so much as they appeal to all, to the future for the solution. They who write and speak in the formation of our government wrote and spoke only of a government by and with the consent of the governed.

Any other idea is horribly repugnant to the spirit of our constitution.

The subjugation of the Indians may be discussed on the idea that they are within our own borders and self preservation required it.

The retention of the Philippines may be apologize d for by reason of the fact of its proximity to us, and that it was our duty to interfere for the protection of its citizens, and that we should hold the island as a bulwark and protection from a foreign invader.

Now, these reasons do not apply to the Philippines, and its retention can only be an exercise of power over a weaker people than their consent and without excuse or apology. Taking this from Spain was right. Buying them from Spain was right. Dewey's shells into the fleet was right. Manila and Subic Bay, and the Spanish and Spanish ships were lost in the exercise of conquering of a power with which we were at war. The selling of the Philippines is, I fear, putting to death the spirit of '76, and here, for which our ancestors fought. At Concord and Bunker Hill, we fought for the right to use Spanish blood spilt for the protection of the Cuban, and were willing to sacrifice our lives to the Spaniard, fall to give freedom to the Philippines, but I am unwilling to see the blood of the Filipinos flow at the hand of the American soldiers in the subjugation of that people. God Almighty will not let us, posterity of a race of ancestry who fought for freedom and liberty if that posterity seeks to enslave or oppress others.

The conquerors of the Philippines will not sustain the spirit of conquest, and when it is over, the Filipinos will come to us and say, "Please give us back our power and freedom, and then will the spirit of liberty and of freedom find the home of the brave."

The question of the capability of the Philippines for self government need not be discussed when the permanence retention of their territory is intended. We will be compelled to exercise the functions of an empire in the Philippines if we retain them. Shall we be a republic in America and a monarchy in the Philippines—a republic in the Occident and an empire in the Orient? Shall our empire have a seat in the Orient, and we know that the President of the United States and Emperor of the Philippines? Is not the trend toward the disintegration of the republic and the establishment of a centralized government, call it what you may, will it not be the end of the empire? If they are capable of self government they should be free. If they are not capable of self-government it is contrary to good policy and dangerous in the extreme to clothe them with citizenship, and they must be a liability to the country, and a bad influence.

Let me close by saying that the report that you are said to have circulated is false in every particular, and that, for your own sake, it will not be mine, you will not repeat it.

Hoping that the friendly relations that have existed between me may continue I am yours,

M. A. Cassidy

HOME AND SCHOOL.

Article in "Education" Written by Superintendent Cassidy.

Comparison of Methods of the Past and Present.

The following clause from the school bill introduced by Mr. Cassidy explains his opposition to the bill:

"* * * * the further right before final adoption to ascertain if the prices of which any and all books are offered are as low as the same grade of books are sold elsewhere in the United States, and in no event, shall any book be sold which is not sold by the means of some publisher or publishers that the price down in their books is not above forty percent above the cost of production. * * *

Thus it can be seen that Mr. Cassidy has done more for the cause of good schools and cheaper text books than any other man in Kentucky.

Mr. Cassidy, when he made his campaign in this country, conducted it on the highest plane. He spoke of his opponents in the most complimentary terms, and all who met him were impressed by the fact that he was a high-toned, honorable gentleman. His sole reason for opposing the bill was the high cost of education.

It is to be hoped that the bill will be passed, and that the American people will understand the cause of education in Kentucky.

tonians in the United States. He is quoted as an authority by the leading educational journals and what is thought of his ability, may be seen on another page of this paper.

COURT JUDGE AHI, in behalf of the fiscal court should follow the example set by the Cloverport city council and appoint St. Paul as a delegate to the good roads convention under the same conditions as in Charles Bohler's case.

THE FAMILY.

The following magnificent editorial on "The Family" is taken from the Christian Advocate.

Universal prominence has been given of late to a social scandal in New York City, in which a woman of great wealth, who is a member of a prominent family, was almost instantly married to her paramour. The whole affair is in full swing that we should not allude to it were it not symptomatic of that increasing disregard for the sanctity of the marriage tie which is one of the gravest perils of our American civilization. We do not wish to excite envy either the actual or the possible dangers of the times in which we live. Scattered far and wide over this vast Republic there are millions of pure and beautiful houses in which the love of husbands and wives, of parents and children, is an abiding grace. Such homes are the very clearest of virtue and religion. But that day shall ever come when they are overruled by the unholy influences that are abroad in this world, far removed, a long, far, we, to all our greatness.

The very conception of marriage is that it is a bond of mutual respect and affection, and that it is to be a permanent life. Any other theory robs it of everything that makes it worthy of admiration, and puts it on a level with the mere mating of brute beasts. To sneer at such views as sentimental is to show an utter incapacity for appreciating the true nobility of human existence. When you strip away a man's sentiments from him, what do you leave him but a more highly organized animal, whose gift of rationality is an added means of procuring sensual gratification? How any woman with the least trace of decency left can look into the faces of her children after she has deserted their father, a mere animal, is beyond our comprehension; and how any man above the level of a brute can deliberately put away the wife of his youth for the sake of a second union is likewise a mystery into which we cannot enter. Even when the law of the land enables us to do such abhorrent proceedings, they are the mere hideous in the sight of God.

The waning of love is a signal of danger in the household. More frequently than otherwise the husband is responsible for it. He becomes absorbed in the pursuit of wealth, and ceases to give himself to his home. In a course of time it may be that, in a fit of impatience of the vows assumed before the altar, he plunges into a life of profligacy. In the former case he is gravely remiss in duty; in the latter he is guilty of almost unpardonable sin. It is no wonder if the wife, really it is that it takes so long to him to succeed in the task. In rarer instances it is the wife whose narrowness of view, or pettiness of temper, or lack of appreciation causes the marriage bonds till then are rent asunder. Very rarely, indeed, if ever, does a woman cast her countenance to the winds, quite throws off the high and holy obligation which she has voluntarily assumed. If women were, on the average, as low moral grade as men, society would speedily go to pieces with a crash.

It may be that this editorial will reach those who have not turned away. If so, we hope that not to turn away. It with a flippant or impudent word. There are ten thousand husbands and wives who are beginning to draw apart in their aspirations and plans and purposes, and to whom the holy in-mothers of other years are but as a fading dream. The world is full of such cases, on which they have entered, increasing alienation is as certain to occur as the birth of the world. Before they have gone too far, to retrace their steps, they should turn back and seek a better way. Even if they care little for the welfare of their children, they should discharge the debt which they owe to their children. The bitterest and most unwholesome of all sins is to turn away from the mind of a boy or girl, the recognition of a home without love, without manly and womanly worth, and full of mean jars and discords, and the world of the water is out. Through all the coming years it will live on, a death of joy, to paralyze faith, and to make nobility and greatness of character almost an impossibility.

SCORED A VICTORY.

Resolutions Favorable to Kentucky Asphalt.

Passed by the State Commercial Convention.

The chief item of business, the one that most widely affected the interests of this country, was that transacted at the State Commercial convention at Louisville last week, was the passage of the following resolution.

RESOLVED, THAT THE CITIZENS AND BUSINESS MEN OF THIS STATE BE REQUESTED TO USE THE ASPHALT PRODUCT OF THIS STATE IN MAKING STREETS, PROVIDED THE OWNERS OF THE ASPHALT IN THIS STATE MEET THE PRICES OF COMPETITORS AND GIVE TO THE CITY SATISFACTORY ASSURANCE THAT THE WORK WILL BE OF THE SAME QUALITY AS IN ALL DURABLE STREETS.

The adoption of this resolution was the result of a fight made by a delegation consisting of fifty of the principal business and professional men of this state, who were convened to advise the action in respect of the business. The Louisville Board of Public Works was discriminating against the Breckinridge county product.

Speeches in favor of the resolution were made by Richard Knott, editor of the Louisville Post, Ed Goodnight and others.

In a sense it was a clean victory for Breckinridge county though it is not thought that the board will act on the recommendation.

Week Eyes Are Made Strong

Big Revival.

Elder Bunting of the Christian church, assisted by El. A. Jordan of Madrid, Ind., also by Miss Jessie Shaffer, the singing evangelist, Marion, Ind., will hold a meeting, beginning Thursday evening, June 10.

Elder Bear is a most eloquent evangelist.

He is original in his methods of preaching, and with no doubt a great enthusiast, though A. Jordan, his assistant is a versatile gentleman and is possessed of linguistic accomplishments, which enables him to preach in four languages.

Around the World.

For a week past he has been on a trip around the world. He has been appointed to a position on an engineer corps in the United States Army. He is now awaiting orders to go to Manila via the Suez canal and will return via San Francisco.

Keep Your Youth

If you are young you naturally appear so.

If you are old, why appear so young inwardly; we will look after this outwardly.

We need not worry longer about these little streaks of gray; advance agents of age.

I had a pleasant visit last Friday, from Mrs. Gerard Foote and Mrs. Will, of y. of near Irvin ton.

Mrs. S. C. Main, of Owensboro, spent a night with her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Worland, last evening on route to Ashland to attend the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herndon are again installed at our famous Madison county resort, "Old Mill," on Doe Run, near the white sulphur well.

I was sorry I did not know that Judge James R. and Orrville Killman were here last week to do our "fairies." I have heard them so frequently spoken of I feel acquainted.

Speeches in favor of the resolution were made by Richard Knott, editor of the Louisville Post, Ed Goodnight and others.

In a sense it was a clean victory for Breckinridge county though it is not thought that the board will act on the recommendation.

FORDSVILLE.

Born—to the wife of Lee Montgomery, a girl, May 19.

Miss Lee is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Folk Gilmore.

Miss Jessie French returned home last week, from Russellville college.

The Baptismal parsonage is completed, and Brother Hatchell has moved in.

Quite a number from here, attended church at Clark's school house Sunday.

Telephone boxes are being put in a number of the stores and private houses here.

Mrs. Dnd Cooper and son, Huber, are visiting their parents near Bowling Green.

Mrs. Graham, of Nairne, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Mack Smith, this week.

Bob Crider will move his family to Irvington, this week. We regret to have their leave.

Miss Elsie Smith entertained a few friends at her home, Miss Jessie and Mrs. Smith, Saturday night.

Regular services were held at the Baptist church by Brother Hatchell, Sunday, and Sunday night. A large crowd attended.

W. W. Camp, has been transferred from the Branch road, to train 45 and 46 on the main line. We are very sorry to give Mr. Camp up as a citizen of our town. His services will be missed, however, W. H. Sargent, for several days. Then she will join her husband at Louisville, where they will make their home.

Deaf Tobacco Spill and Snuff Your Lips Away.
To quill tobacco easily and forever, to drag out the life of a cigarette, to snuff out the last wisp, that makes weak men strong. All drugstore, 50c or 80c. Cure-guaranteed. Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

GLENDANE.

Miss Alma Mettingly, will visit in the Cave Spring neighborhood the close of this week.

Miss Fannie Green arrives tomorrow from Louisville, will be in the summer.

Miss Hannah Deane, of Owensboro, is visiting her grandparent's, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Deane.

The small ones can be said about the extremely early vegetables somebody has. Milt Matheny gives the best report.

Miss Mary and Nelle Moormann,

Bethany Barberous, Daisy Deane and Paul Deemont and Jess Moormann, went to Louisville, Sunday.

Willis Mettingly, of Clermont, was here Sunday, to see his sister, Mrs. Julian Brown.

Condenser Tilford's wife and daughter, Miss Flora, was the guest of Miss Mettingly, Sunday.

Jessie Mettingly, of Long Lick, and Bill Moore of McDowell, made their regular trips Sunday.

One of the bridge crew, Steve Ryan, dropped a pincher of lime on his foot last week, and is unable to be out.

Mr. Jimmie Kishel, served from her home at Carrollton, Ky., last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Owen.

John Owen was using a hatchet last week. It flew off the handle and struck his foot, cutting it so that he is not able to walk.

Miss Mamie Green is staying in the Post Office. Her accomodating manner is a very welcome addition to our excellent service.

Mrs. Eliza Lewis, of Irvington, is visiting here, today, Monday. She and Mr. Dick Owen, will go up to her old home, the Lewis farm, near Mr. Johnson Owen's.

The suit of Mrs. Chandler against the Tice Co. Company, for $25,000, comes in the U. S. Court at Louisville this week. Several witness will attend from here.

The Clermont baseball team, Paul Deemont Manager, and Jessie Mettingly Captain, are organized, active, able to play, and are ready to play team that wants a contest.

An unusual amount of work makes it necessary for Rod Mattingly to secure help. That excellent workmen, Mr. Bob Smith, of Hardinsburg, will arrive to assist him.

Miss Anna Hunter, Floyd Morrissey and others, went over on Houch Creek Saturday afternoon to fish. They got in fishies, but awfully sleepy about daylight, Sunday morning.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of American, of 1120 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she and Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no relief, but she says of that Royal Cure, "It so relieved me that I can now sleep soundly, something I can't do without doing more. I feel like something is taking me through the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Short & Hayne drugstore: every bottle guaranteed.

Misses Mary and Nelle Moormann, getting up a petition to change the voting place back from Webster to Clifton where it should be for the convenience of the majority of the voters.

Are not the roads going to be worked at all this year. If not, I think the county should make an appropriation for grass seed to be sown on the longer roads, so that we may have a better road to travel.

Miss Louise Hedgeson and Miss Gussie Gossage were appointed some weeks ago to collect funds with which to purchase an organ for the Clifton church.

They are faithful and sincere as well.

The organ is ordered and expected here this week.

Mr. Editor, the people of this neighborhood are not the best in the country for public spirit.

With young men who take a course of Dr. King's Golden Medical Discovery, and such a marked change in their physical strength and energy. The body will be strong and healthy, and the mind and tax and tire, but be the natural exercise enjoyed by muscle which are growing and firm health.

In a little recent from A. D. Wether, Miss of Pensacola, Escambia Co., Fla. (Box 544), comes the following:

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness

Body building as they understand it in Greece and Rome, is not a lost art. Young men fat cheated, fat in mind, fat in body. Always along the streets, with scarcely one physical exercise, a good deal of food. And yet these young men would like to be as much muscle as any people, erect, strong, and manly. But they don't know how to do it. They try dumbbells, rowing and boxing. Not in a healthy way. These sports should be played to develop the body, not to tax it.

The stomach is not working properly, the digestive and nutritive organs are not in active health. The result is that the nutrition for the body is not distributed in proportion to the amount of food and muscle.
